Thank you for your letter of 29th April.

Unfortunately I shall myself be on holiday during the last two weeks of July (and the first week of August) when you suggested we should meet. Could we aim, therefore, at mid-August? Although this means a further delay to a resolution of the problem, in the circumstances I would be prepared to postpone the date when we proposed that the new arrangements should start from 1st June to 1st October.

As to the last two paragraphs of your letter, if there is any misunderstanding about our use of the word "files", let it be clear that we mean material as processed by the FBIS from our coverage of various areas. Indeed in my letter of 10th February I referred to "all processed material" from the listed sources. I am sorry if I did not spell out that the "processing" was that done by the FBIS, but I thought it had always been understood that that was the material which you receive.

I look forward to hearing from you whether you will be able to come to Caversham in August.
